

- Information for foreign participants

You are considered a foreign participant if you study, work or do research outside the borders of Macedonia. As such, according to the paper quality, a selected number of foreign applicants will be given special waivers.

The conference organisation will cover the following for the special waiver participants:

- Accommodation (Half Board (HB)) and food will be provided by the organisers for the following days: arrival day (22th November), three working days (23 th, 24th, 25th November). The accommodation for the night after the departure day (between 25th – 26th November) is not covered;
- Free public transportation from the accommodation to the conference location will be provided by the organisers;
- Additional office materials (such as notebooks, pens, markers) will be provided by the organizers;
- Lunch and refreshments, for the duration of the conference, will be provided.

Other participants (non-special waiver participants) are expected to cover their own accommodation, food and city transport expenses.

Expenses not covered by the conference organisation (for special waiver and non-special waiver participants):

- The participation fee for the conference is 10 euros per paper;
- Travel expenses to and from Skopje, Macedonia are not covered.

* Half Board (HB) means that your breakfast and evening meal is included in your accommodation package.
